Re: U.S. v. Angelo Michel
11 Cr 755 (JK)

Honorable Keenan,

Please be advised that Ms. Meusette Gonzalez is currently employed by my firm as our Legal Assistant. Ms. Gonzalez has been trained to conduct in depth legal interviews, organize files and perform research. It would be beneficial to our firm if the Court would appoint Ms. Gonzalez paralegal responsibilities for trial preparation purposes in the above-referenced multi-defendant large conspiracy case. Moreover, Ms. Gonzalez has been previously assigned such responsibilities by the Honorable Naomi R. Buchwald in the case of U.S. v. Cibik 11 Cr 424 (NRB) and by Honorable Paul A. Engelmayer in U.S. v. Jose Mejia 11 Cr 1032 (PAE).

Ms. Gonzalez is a recent John Jay College graduate with a B.A. in Criminal Justice. Prior to her employment with my firm, Ms. Gonzalez was employed by the New York State Attorney General's Office Consumer Fraud Bureau. There her duties consisted of informing the public of the most prevalent forms of consumer fraud being reported.

Furthermore, when it came time for the assistant attorney general in charge to initiate motions to begin trial, Ms. Gonzalez working in a team environment was responsible for the production of all documents necessary for litigation.

For all the aforementioned reasons, I firmly believe that Meusette Gonzalez should be appointed paralegal responsibilities for trial preparation purposes at a rate of $35.00 per hour for a maximum of 100 hours.

Thank you kindly in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Donaldson & Chilliest, LLP
